CYCLING TOURNAIMENT.

The Great Meet at Chicago; August 8 to 12.

A Milwaukee Rider and Comment to Represent England's Whistman—some American Cycles—International Cycling Association.

(Special Correspondent)

Walter C. Sanger is to represent England in the international cycling championship race, which will take place in Chicago on the two last days of the national annual meet of the League of American Wheelmen, August 5 to 12.

The Wilson Bill Passed.

The Wilson Bill passed the purchasing clause of the Sherman silver law was passed in the House Monday when all the amendments of the silver man had been voted to. The bill was then passed by a vote of 161 to 101. The bill was then passed by a vote of 161 to 101. The bill was then passed by a vote of 161 to 101.

The President and his family—when he left—have returned to Washington.

Geo. B. Gardner, of Salersville, Ky., has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the Interior department at a salary of $2,000.

Three of Louisville's four suspended banks have resumed business. The Kentucky National may not be able to reopen.

Postmaster Fordyce, of Bowling Green, has resigned and Geo. B. Gaines, of the Park City Times, will take his place without delay.

Savannah, Georgia, was visited by a terrible windstorm Monday night, which destroyed much property and caused the loss of twenty or more lives.

Lynchings No. 67 occurred at New Castle, Ky., on the night of the 27th ult. Leonard Goodrich, colored, was hanged by the mob for the attempted murder of an Italian peddler boy.

It is now believed that the government will interfere no further and that the nine Choctaws condemned to death at Indian Territory, will be shot September 8.

Col. Henry T. Dineen, of the Lexington Press, has been declared the Democratic nominee for Mayor of Lexington. Col. J. O. Hodges, a Laidlaw man, was nominated to succeed Jim Mulligan as Senator.

Manti, of Montana; Allen, of Kentucky; and Beckwith, of Wyoming, the Senators appointed after the legislature had failed to elect, have been denied their seats. The Governor of these States can and doubtless will call the legislatures together in extra session to elect Senators. At least the silver men are urging them to do so.

George Delaney, one of the crowd who participated in the Oliver Deady tragedy, but who did not fire the shot, has been given a life sentence for the same crime.

The shooting of Walton at Morganfield has borne its fruit and Frank Holt may be considered lucky that his case was called for.

Mr. E. E. Wash has withdrawn from the race for representative in Trigg county, leaving Hon. Feston Sims without Democratic opposition.

Mr. Wash assigns as a reason that the county committee called an old-fashioned primary election, which was found to be illegal, and as his friends would go into it and the committee declined to change the call, he decided to retire.

The first issue of the Republican Banner, with Mr. Otto H. Anderson as editor, will appear to-day. It will be a staunch party paper, but Mr. Anderson gives assurance that it will be a decent and high-toned sheet, that will uphold the political principles in a manner that will merit the respect and support of the public. Mr. Anderson is a native of this city and is a young lawyer of ability and influence and is capable of making his paper receive the same to himself and to this section of the State.

Mr. John P. Garrett, the Democratic nominee for representative, is one of the best citizens of Christian county. He is a prominent business man of Paducah and a member of the board of trustees. He is a brother of Hon. James B. Garrett, the distinguished Commonwealth's Attorney for this district. No man in the county stands higher or is more universally esteemed and respected than he and he would prove a strong candidate in and out of his party. He is just the kind of man Christian county needs in the next Legislature.

Capt. James, of the Farmers' and Merchants' Journal, sends to the Republican to-day that the Third party standard bears for several important reasons to be filled at the next election would be as follows: For the State Senate Hon. T. S. Pettit; for Representative from Dawson county, Capt. W. H. Barnett; for County Agent and Notary, G. W. Hall. He said that the Third party would in due time, delay as the evidence was not presented Saturday, make the above nomination. The Republican did not know that ran off with him as soon as the shooting began. The evidence showed that he never fired his gun.

So enough the Milwaukee Republican has induced Dr. A. D. James to consent to run against Will C. Cox for the Legislature. He was nominated this week.

A district convention has been called for Sept. 25, to select a senatorial candidate to beat Tom Pettit in the Democratic district. Judge J. D. Atkinson is likely to be the nominee.

Hon. Pomeroy D. Ball, of Henderson, has withdrawn from the race for the Legislature. He is a member of the House of Representatives and has been a member of the House of Representatives.

The Richmond Chronicle says a bill to turn all the old poll books over to the system of this year voting, now that record making has been taken up by the secret ballot.

Old man Pavin, who married Mrs. Cleveland's mother, is apt to give his wife a good scare in his old age. He says his wife is going to leave about the middle of September "to take care of Mrs. Cleveland," which means—how do you elaborate?—Interior Journal.

It is reported that Mr. Clever T. Sutton, of the Owensboro Messenger, who has for several years been "John's right hand man" will purchase the Republican and publish it this month. Mr. Sutton is one of the best all-around newspaper men in the State and a paper in his hands could be no other than popular with the reading public.

A strange negro in Louisville was able to knock as "Jack the Hunter" from his mania for catching women and bugging them on the streets. The police have been unable to arrest him, although his hanging operations are of daily occurrence. As a rule he catches the girls and after giving them a tight squeezing takes them off without offering further violence.

The Fayette county Democrats defeated Miss Cravens for superintendent of schools in the recent primary and nominated a man for the office. This was right and proper. The Democratic party is not yet ready to take the women of Kentucky from their proper place and drag them to the mine of politics. When our wives and daughters can vote will be enough for them to run for public office.

Scriven's Magazine for September contains a series of illustrations of scenes, seven of these illustrations of scenes represented include Alfred Parsons, A. E. Storer, W. L. Taylor, O. H. Baker, J. H. Treachman and C. S. Reinhardt. With such notable artists the number is remarkably rich and attractive in appearance. The illustrations, widely varied in character, deal from different points of view, with literary passages whose books have become classics.

Kentuckians at the World's Fair are talking of getting up a Yenching list to show how it is done down South. A negro brother assaulted Maj. S. P. Gross, proprietor of the restaurant in the Kentucky hotel, probably disgracing him for life, because Gross refused him admission to the dining room. The negro was arrested and released on $25 bail bond, which he jumped. Detectives are now after him on a charge of felonious assault and the Kentuckians in Chicago would like to be given an opportunity to file him on a limb as a "Southern scoundrel" exhibit.

Speaking of the re-nomination of the best school Superintendent in the State the Owensboro Journal moved to remark: "Garrett is a Democrat and has nominated J. D. Garrett for Representative and Prof. S. Frisbie for Superintendent. They should have reversed the honors. If there is anything in a name Prof. Frisbie ought to be elected as the Legislature." Prof. Frisbie has achieved such "fame" in his life-long struggle that his political opponents admit that they have no man out of their thousands of voters who can beat him for reelection. That is why he is the only candidate on a national platform.

The Century Magazine for September is a beautiful volume, both in the illustrations and in the fiction. Several papers last extraordinary "Phillips' Letters" from the "dia" reveal the great preacher as a man of the highest intellect and of the highest human sympathy. The chapter of "Leaves from the Autobiography of Salmon" describes his life in the States, his first visit to New York, and his early experience in Paris and London.

Delaney is a native of this city and is a young lawyer of ability and influence and is capable of making his paper receive the same to himself and to this section of the State.

The Republican did not know that ran off with him as soon as the shooting began. The evidence showed that he never fired his gun.

In spite of the pro-fictions of a huge jury George Delaney, one of the crowd who participated in the Oliver Deady tragedy, but who did not fire the shot, has been given a life sentence for the same crime.

The shooting of Walton at Morganfield has borne its fruit and Frank Holt may be considered lucky that his case was called for.

He is a brother of Hon. James B. Garrett, the distinguished Commonwealth's Attorney for this district. No man in the county stands higher or is more universally esteemed and respected than he and he would prove a strong candidate in and out of his party. He is just the kind of man Christian county needs in the next Legislature.

Capt. James, of the Farmers' and Merchants' Journal, sends to the Republican to-day that the Third party standard bears for several important reasons to be filled at the next election would be as follows: For the State Senate Hon. T. S. Pettit; for Representative from Dawson county, Capt. W. H. Barnett; for County Agent and Notary, G. W. Hall. He said that the Third party would in due time, delay as the evidence was not presented Saturday, make the above nomination. The Republican did not know that ran off with him as soon as the shooting began. The evidence showed that he never fired his gun.

In spite of the pro-fictions of a huge jury George Delaney, one of the crowd who participated in the Oliver Deady tragedy, but who did not fire the shot, has been given a life sentence for the same crime.

The shooting of Walton at Morganfield has borne its fruit and Frank Holt may be considered lucky that his case was called for.

Mr. E. E. Wash has withdrawn from the race for representative in Trigg county, leaving Hon. Feston Sims without Democratic opposition.

A number of friends and gentlemen witnessed the game which lasted two and a half hours. The Paducah team has an excellent battery.

Rain came very near to Hopkinsville again last Saturday, but we were once more commended to the fate of our late friends. Tuesday, Food River got a two hours' down-pour to within ten miles of town on the north and Flat Lick got a down-pour with hail-storms accompanying it on the south to within the same distance. On the east towards the Todd county line a good rain fell, but not here. Tuesday was hardly enough of the plural to moisten a postage stamp. Now that the September crop is in, it is hardly worth while to hope for an end to the drought, but we

There has been a rumor to the effect that Judge McNeel, who was here last week, is leaving for his home, near Roaring Springs last week, but this is without foundation. The report is without foundation, we are reliably informed.

There is great excitement among the people around the Springs, but it is likely that the well will be permitted to take its course in the matter. The World's Fair Special. Those who have not made the trip to Chicago seem to appreciate the advantages of the special of Sept. 3d, judging from the number of people who are going. Those who saw Mr. Cleveland stand in a hall for five hours at his inauguration most of the time have headed, will hardly believe these reports without the aid of some other source of sensational correspondence. The True Lavative Principle.

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Pines, is prepared especially for the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral salts usually so adulterated are positively injurious. Being well informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

A Rich Scene.

The richest and most gorgeous scene ever seen on the local stage will be shown during the production of the "New Monte Cristo" this evening. It is composed of very costly and elaborate scenery, and the production is a masterpiece of the second restoration, and is likely the most expensive scene ever used in any dramatic presentation.

However, this is only one point wherein lavative expenditure is evident in every scene and has been made especially for this production, they are all fine specimens of a master artist's hand. A very large and efficient company is engaged especially for their personal adaptability for the various characters impersonated and a very fine representation of this great play may be confidently expected.
